

Title: Zero

Year: 2018

Genres: Romance

Storyline: Bauua Singh (Shahrukh Khan) is a short, 38-year-old man from Meerut who has trouble finding a marriage partner. After using matrimonial agencies with little luck, he eventually finds his companion in Aafia Yusufzai Bhinder (Anushka Sharma), a NSAR scientist (a fictionalized depiction of NASA) with cerebral palsy. In the events that followed, both fall in love with each other, but Bauua dumps her after five months. However, Aafia comes looking for him, and Bauua's parents fix their marriage. On their marriage day, Bauua's friend Guddu (Mohammed Zeeshan Ayyub) tells him that he is shortlisted for a dance competition where he applied, where the winner gets a chance to meet Babita Kumari (Katrina Kaif), a Bollywood actress. Bauua, determined to meet Babita, runs away from the marriage after a confrontation with Aafia, leaving everyone devastated. Bauua wins and gets to meet Babita at a party, accompanied by other famous Bollywood actors. Babita offers him a job after he displays an ability to guess what goes on in people's mind by observing their expressions. He accompanies her on film schedules and award functions, helping her patch up with her ex-boyfriend Aditya Kapoor (Abhay Deol), who had previously cheated on her. One day, Bauua realizes his wrongdoings and wishing to reconcile with Aafia, starts an argument at a party organized by Babita, following which Babita throws him out and breaks all ties with Aditya, realizing the latter is cheating on her again.
