

Title: Helicopter Eela

Year: 2018

Genres: Romance

Storyline: Eela, a single mother rejoins her college to complete her education after 22 years. In the flashback, it is shown that she is an upcoming, partially-famous model/singer, who records songs written by her boyfriend Arun. When she is recording for a career-breaking song for a Mukesh Bhatt's project, the project gets cancelled indefinitely. So she and her boyfriend decide to get married. After few months it is shown that she gives birth to a boy named Vivaan. While seeing their family tree, Eela and Arun realise that all the members of Arun's family died in their late 30s which drives Arun crazy as he is also in his late 30s. So he finally decides to leave Eela and Vivaan to pursue his own dreams as it might be his final years. Eela, now a single mom, is very over protective about Vivaan. She keeps meddling in Vivaan's life continuously, that she finally joins the same college as of Vivaan to complete her studies. One day suddenly Arun comes back, but he goes out as soon he realizes that Eela and Vivaan don't need him. Eela's involvement in Vivaan's life becomes so much that Vivaan decides to leave his house to give some space to Eela and to find her own identity. Eela joins a college theatre club, and starts singing again. During the annual singing competition She is not allowed to sing because of her age and past singing profession. But Vivaan encourages her to sing on the stage and they together give a remarkable performance. In the credits, it is shown that she has resumed her singing finding herself after many years.

Written by Nadya Wulandari

Actors: Kajol, Tota Roy Chowdhury, Riddhi Sen, Neha Dhupia